

Name _____

Date _____

Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement

A pronoun is a word, such as he, she or they, that takes the place of one or more nouns. An antecedent is the noun or nouns that the pronoun replaces.

Choose the sentence in which the pronoun agrees with the antecedent.

1. A. The students finished its project.
B. The teacher corrected their mistake.
C. The boy lost his pencil.

2. A. Each of the boys brought their lunch.
B. Each of the boys brought his lunch.
C. Each of the boys brought her lunch.

3. A. Every student brought their books to class.
B. The dog wagged its tail happily after seeing its owner.
C. Each of the players scored their own goals during the game.

Name _____

Date _____

Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement - Answer Key

A pronoun is a word, such a he, she or they, that takes the place of one or more nouns. An antecedent is the noun or nouns that the pronoun replaces.

Choose the sentence in which the pronoun agrees with the antecedent.

1. A. The students finished its project.
B. The teacher corrected their mistake.
☒ C. The boy lost his pencil.

2. A. Each of the boys brought their lunch.
☒ B. Each of the boys brought his lunch.
C. Each of the boys brought her lunch.

3. A. Every student brought their books to class.
☒ B. The dog wagged its tail happily after seeing its owner.
C. Each of the players scored their own goals during the game.