Make Connections

When we read, we can make three types of connections:

Text-to-Self: Relating what you read to your own life or experiences.

Text-to-Text: Connecting what you read to another book, story, or text.

Text-to-World: Relating what you read to events or ideas in the real world.

Choose the type of connections.

1. You are reading a story about a family hiking in the mountains. You think about the time you went hiking with your family. What type of connection is this?

- A. Text-to-Self
- B. Text-to-Text
- C. Text-to-World

2. While reading about a girl who moved to a new school, you remember a story from another book about a boy who also moved to a new town. What type of connection is this?

- A. Text-to-Self
- B. Text-to-Text
- C. Text-to-World
