

Name _____

Date _____

Homonyms and Homophones

A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word but has a different meaning and is sometimes spelled differently. A homograph is a word that has the same spelling as another word but has a different meaning.

Example:

I don't know where you are going to wear that hat!

Choose the right word to fill in the blank.

1. The scientist carefully placed the glass beaker on the _____ to begin the experiment. (stationary/stationery)
2. The poet used a beautiful _____ to compare the moon to a silver coin. (medal/metaphor)
3. The student was excited to learn about the _____ of the moon during the science lesson. (phase/faze)
4. The teacher asked the students to _____ the differences between the two rock samples. (cite/sight)
5. During the Revolutionary War, soldiers used a _____ to carry water. (pail/pale)
6. The volcano erupted, sending lava down the mountain and covering the nearby _____. (crater/creator)

Name _____

Date _____

Homonyms and Homophones – Answer Key

A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word but has a different meaning and is sometimes spelled differently. A homograph is a word that has the same spelling as another word but has a different meaning.

Example:

I don't know where you are going to wear that hat!

Choose the right word to fill in the blank.

1. The scientist carefully placed the glass beaker on the stationary to begin the experiment. (stationary/stationery)
2. The poet used a beautiful metaphor to compare the moon to a silver coin. (medal/metaphor)
3. The student was excited to learn about the phase of the moon during the science lesson. (phase/faze)
4. The teacher asked the students to cite the differences between the two rock samples. (cite/sight)
5. During the Revolutionary War, soldiers used a pail to carry water. (pail/pale)
6. The volcano erupted, sending lava down the mountain and covering the nearby crater. (crater/creator)