

Name _____

Date _____

Examine Different Writing Voices

Every writer has a unique voice that conveys emotions and serves different purposes. Choosing the right voice helps writers connect with their audience and achieve their goals.

Fill in the phrases that help make this narrative exciting.

- A. searching wildly B. cheered loudly C. surprised everyone
D. getting nervous E. good friends

Exciting Morning with Lucy Lou!

by Rosie

Mrs. Hornblower's cat, Lucy Lou, _____ with five kittens yesterday! It was quite a morning because Mrs. Hornblower is our bus driver. Lucy Lou was hiding under the couch, and Mrs. Hornblower was _____ for her.

We were _____ because we thought we'd be late for school. But in the end, Mrs. Hornblower _____ when she found Lucy Lou and her kittens safe and sound.

Later, she apologized for making us late and announced, "All my _____ on Bus 83 may help name the kittens! And if you want one of your own, just ask your parents to call me!"

Name _____

Date _____

Examine Different Writing Voices – Answer Key

Every writer has a unique voice that conveys emotions and serves different purposes. Choosing the right voice helps writers connect with their audience and achieve their goals.

Fill in the phrases that help make this narrative exciting.

- A. searching wildly B. cheered loudly C. surprised everyone
D. getting nervous E. good friends

Exciting Morning with Lucy Lou!

by Rosie

Mrs. Hornblower's cat, Lucy Lou, C with five kittens yesterday! It was quite a morning because Mrs. Hornblower is our bus driver. Lucy Lou was hiding under the couch, and Mrs. Hornblower was A for her.

We were D because we thought we'd be late for school. But in the end, Mrs. Hornblower B when she found Lucy Lou and her kittens safe and sound.

Later, she apologized for making us late and announced, "All my E on Bus 83 may help name the kittens! And if you want one of your own, just ask your parents to call me!"