

Name _____

Date _____

Compound Subject and Predicate

A compound subject occurs when a sentence has two or more subjects that share the same verb.

Example: Aiden and Jerry ran to the store.

A compound predicate occurs when a sentence has one subject that performs two or more actions (verbs).

Example: Sammie walked to the park and played on the swings.

Circle the complete subjects. Underline the complete predicates.

1. My sister and my brother went to the library and borrowed books.
2. I enjoy reading novels and watching movies.
3. Emma and Liam baked cookies and cleaned the kitchen together.
4. The puppy and the kitten played in the garden.
5. We packed our bags and traveled to the mountains.

Write a sentence about food using:

One subject + One predicate
One subject + Two predicates
Two subjects + One predicate
Two subjects + Two predicates

Name _____

Date _____

Compound Subject and Predicate – Answer Key

A compound subject occurs when a sentence has two or more subjects that share the same verb.

Example: Aiden and Jerry ran to the store.

A compound predicate occurs when a sentence has one subject that performs two or more actions (verbs).

Example: Sammie walked to the park and played on the swings.

Circle the complete subjects. Underline the complete predicates.

1. My sister and my brother went to the library and borrowed books.
2. Jason and enjoy reading novels and watching movies.
3. Emma and Liam baked cookies and cleaned the kitchen together.
4. The puppy and the kitten played and raced in the garden.
5. We packed our bags and traveled to the mountains.

Write a sentence about food using:

One subject + One predicate	The pasta boiled on the stove.
One subject + Two predicates	The chef chopped the vegetables and prepared the sauce.
Two subjects + One predicate	The bread and the butter were placed on the table.
Two subjects + Two predicates	The salad and the soup tasted delicious and satisfied everyone.