

Name _____

Date _____

Types and Forms of Nouns

Nouns name people, places, things, or ideas. Plurals can be regular or irregular. Proper nouns are always capitalized. Specific nouns make writing clearer.

1. Complete the compound words, numbers or fractions in the following sentences with hyphens.

- The _____ (child) are playing in the park.
- I saw two _____ (mouse) near the trash can.
- The _____ (woman) are talking in the library.
- There are many _____ (leaf) on the ground.

2. Choose the correct form in a conversation.

Mom: What animals did you see at the zoo?

Child: We saw two _____ (deers/deer) and three _____ (elephants/elephant).

3. Categorize the nouns.

children	apples	Sarah
cities	teeth	Paris

Regular plurals
Irregular plurals
Proper nouns

Name _____

Date _____

Types and Forms of Nouns – Answer Key

Nouns name people, places, things, or ideas. Plurals can be regular or irregular. Proper nouns are always capitalized. Specific nouns make writing clearer.

1. Complete the compound words, numbers or fractions in the following sentences with hyphens.

- The children (child) are playing in the park.
- I saw two mice (mouse) near the trash can.
- The women (woman) are talking in the library.
- There are many leaves (leaf) on the ground.

2. Choose the correct form in a conversation.

Mom: What animals did you see at the zoo?

Child: We saw two deer (deers/deer) and three elephants (elephants/elephant).

3. Categorize the nouns.

children	apples	Sarah
cities	teeth	Paris

Regular plurals	apples, cities
Irregular plurals	children, teeth
Proper nouns	Sarah, Paris