

Name _____

Date _____

Participles

A participle is a verb form used as an adjective. Each verb has two forms that can be used as participles. The present participle form has -ing added to the verb. The past participle form usually has -ed added to the verb.

Identify and use participial phrases.

1. The boy _____ (run) through the park looked very happy.
2. The cake _____ (bake) by my mom smells delicious.
3. The dog _____ (sleep) on the couch woke up suddenly.
4. The letter _____ (write) yesterday was sent this morning.
5. The girl _____ (read) a book is my friend.
6. The apples _____ (pick) from the orchard tasted sweet.
7. The car _____ (park) outside belongs to my neighbor.
8. The baby _____ (cry) loudly needs a nap.
9. The flowers _____ (plant) last spring are blooming beautifully.
10. The cat _____ (chase) the mouse disappeared into the bushes.

Name _____

Date _____

Participles – Answer Key

A participle is a verb form used as an adjective. Each verb has two forms that can be used as participles. The present participle form has -ing added to the verb. The past participle form usually has -ed added to the verb.

Identify and use participial phrases.

1. The boy running (run) through the park looked very happy.
2. The cake baked (bake) by my mom smells delicious.
3. The dog sleeping (sleep) on the couch woke up suddenly.
4. The letter written (write) yesterday was sent this morning.
5. The girl reading (read) a book is my friend.
6. The apples picked (pick) from the orchard tasted sweet.
7. The car parked (park) outside belongs to my neighbor.
8. The baby crying (cry) loudly needs a nap.
9. The flowers planted (plant) last spring are blooming beautifully.
10. The cat chasing (chase) the mouse disappeared into the bushes.