

Name _____

Date _____

Use Apostrophes

An apostrophe is a punctuation mark used to show ownership or to indicate the omission of letters in a word. For nouns, add 's after a singular noun or a plural noun that doesn't end with s; add ' after a plural noun that ends with s.

Rewrite the underlined phrase to include an apostrophe for possession.

1. The dogs bone was found in the garden. _____
2. Angelas decorations looked amazing. _____
3. The mices cages were filled with cheese. _____
4. A cars four tires have to be filled with air. _____
5. His childs backpack was left on the airplane. _____
6. She was excited to find a gooses feather. _____
7. Roys tie matched his grandfathers tie. _____
8. We were introduced to the childrens principal. _____

Name _____

Date _____

Use Apostrophes – Answer Key

An apostrophe is a punctuation mark used to show ownership or to indicate the omission of letters in a word. For nouns, add 's after a singular noun or a plural noun that doesn't end with s; add ' after a plural noun that ends with s.

Rewrite the underlined phrase to include an apostrophe for possession.

1. The dogs bone was found in the garden. The dog's bone
2. Angelas decorations looked amazing. Angela's decorations
3. The mices cages were filled with cheese. The mice's cages
4. A cars four tires have to be filled with air. A car's four tires
5. His childs backpack was left on the airplane. His child's backpack
6. She was excited to find a gooses feather. a goose's feather
7. Roy's tie matched his grandfathers tie. Roy's tie/ grandfather's tie
8. We were introduced to the childrens principal. the children's principal