

Name _____

Date _____

Irregular Verb Use and Their Modifiers

Standard English refers to the appropriate and proper way to speak and write, adhering to established rules for grammar, spelling, and punctuation.

Example:

Correct: I will visit the library tomorrow.

Not Correct: Me visit library tomorrow.

1. Rewrite the sentence with correct grammar and capitalization.

the dog runned fast down the street

---

2. Add the correct punctuation to the following sentence.

What time are we leaving for the trip

---

3. Correct the spelling errors in the following sentence.

I lik to reed bukks in the librery.

---

4. Combine these two sentences into one correct, clear sentence.

The cat sat on the mat. It was very soft.

---

Name _____

Date _____

Irregular Verb Use and Their Modifiers – Answer Key

Standard English refers to the appropriate and proper way to speak and write, adhering to established rules for grammar, spelling, and punctuation.

Example:

Correct: I will visit the library tomorrow.

Not Correct: Me visit library tomorrow.

1. Rewrite the sentence with correct grammar and capitalization.

the dog runned fast down the street

The dog ran fast down the street.

2. Add the correct punctuation to the following sentence.

What time are we leaving for the trip

What time are we leaving for the trip?

3. Correct the spelling errors in the following sentence.

I lik to reed bukks in the librery.

I like to read books in the library.

4. Combine these two sentences into one correct, clear sentence.

The cat sat on the mat. It was very soft.

The cat sat on the soft mat.