

Name _____

Date _____

Academic Vocabulary in Writing

Academic vocabulary refers to the specialized language used in formal educational settings, such as universities, and in academic texts like textbooks and research papers.

Choose the correct academic word to fill in the blank.

1. The scientist provided detailed _____ (evidence, picture, guess) to support her findings.
2. The experiment results _____ (prove, forget, disprove) the hypothesis about plant growth.
3. The teacher asked us to _____ (analyze, skip, hide) the graph and identify trends.
4. The student gave specific _____ (examples, pictures, guesses) to explain her answer.
5. Can you _____ (compare, contrast, erase) the two characters to show how they are different?
6. The teacher told us to carefully _____ (evaluate, skip, delete) the evidence presented in the article.
7. It is important to _____ (interpret, change, remove) the meaning of the poem before discussing it.

Name _____

Date _____

Academic Vocabulary in Writing – Answer Key

Academic vocabulary refers to the specialized language used in formal educational settings, such as universities, and in academic texts like textbooks and research papers.

Choose the correct academic word to fill in the blank.

1. The scientist provided detailed evidence (evidence, picture, guess) to support her findings.
2. The experiment results prove (prove, forget, disprove) the hypothesis about plant growth.
3. The teacher asked us to analyze (analyze, skip, hide) the graph and identify trends.
4. The student gave specific examples (examples, pictures, guesses) to explain her answer.
5. Can you compare (compare, contrast, erase) the two characters to show how they are different?
6. The teacher told us to carefully evaluate (evaluate, skip, delete) the evidence presented in the article.
7. It is important to interpret (interpret, change, remove) the meaning of the poem before discussing it.