

Name _____

Date _____

Understand Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the act of using someone else's work, ideas, or words without properly giving them credit, and presenting them as your own. It is considered unethical and a violation of intellectual property rights.

Read the following scenarios and write "Plagiarism" or "Not Plagiarism"

1. Emma copies a paragraph from a website and pastes it into her science project without adding a citation and any explanation. .

Your answer: _____

2. Noah designs a poster for his social studies class using information from an article, but he includes the article's title and the author's name at the bottom of the poster.

Your answer: _____

3. Olivia uses exact sentences from a classmate's essay in her own writing, and she doesn't mention that she borrowed the work.

Your answer: _____

4. Olivia uses exact sentences from a classmate's essay in her own writing, and she doesn't mention that she borrowed the work.

Your answer: _____

5. Ethan reads several books about sharks, combines the information using his own sentences, and lists the books he used in a bibliography.

Your answer: _____

Name _____

Date _____

Understand Plagiarism – Answer Key

Plagiarism is the act of using someone else's work, ideas, or words without properly giving them credit, and presenting them as your own. It is considered unethical and a violation of intellectual property rights.

Read the following scenarios and write "Plagiarism" or "Not Plagiarism"

1. Emma copies a paragraph from a website and pastes it into her science project without adding a citation and any explanation. .

Your answer: Plagiarism

2. Noah designs a poster for his social studies class using information from an article, but he includes the article's title and the author's name at the bottom of the poster.

Your answer: Not Plagiarism

3. Olivia uses exact sentences from a classmate's essay in her own writing, and she doesn't mention that she borrowed the work.

Your answer: Plagiarism

4. Olivia uses exact sentences from a classmate's essay in her own writing, and she doesn't mention that she borrowed the work.

Your answer: Not Plagiarism

5. Ethan reads several books about sharks, combines the information using his own sentences, and lists the books he used in a bibliography.

Your answer: Plagiarism