Persuasion Strategy

Persuasion is convincing someone to think, feel, or act in a certain way. Authors use it to share opinions, support arguments, and influence readers.

Use an Idea-Support Map to show how the author persuades readers with statements in the passage.

A Flawed Plan

The Everglades Restoration Plan claims to be "comprehensive," but it falls short of protecting this important ecosystem. For example, the plan relies on unproven water tests that may still allow polluted water to enter the Everglades.

Additionally, the plan permits building in areas that provide fresh water and habitats for native wildlife. This could lead to more habitat loss and harm the environment.
