

Name _____

Date _____

Choose Words for Your Audience

Word choice is the deliberate selection of words to suit the audience, purpose, and tone of a piece of writing. It helps ensure that the message is clear, appropriate, and engaging for the reader.

Identify whether the word choice is appropriate for the specified audience. Choose the best answer.

1. Sentence: "Hey Mr. Johnson, can I skip the science test today? I'm really not in the mood."

Audience: A teacher.

- A. Appropriate
- B. Not Appropriate
- C. Appropriate, but informal

2. Sentence: "DNA is like tiny instructions inside every living thing that tell your body how to work."

Audience: 4th-grade science class.

- A. Appropriate
- B. Not Appropriate – too formal
- C. Not Appropriate – too detailed

3. Sentence: "Grandma, you're the GOAT for making these delicious cookies!"

Audience: Your elderly grandmother.

- A. Appropriate
- B. Not Appropriate – slang might confuse her
- C. Appropriate if your grandma is used to modern slang

Name _____

Date _____

Choose Words for Your Audience – Answer Key

Word choice is the deliberate selection of words to suit the audience, purpose, and tone of a piece of writing. It helps ensure that the message is clear, appropriate, and engaging for the reader.

Identify whether the word choice is appropriate for the specified audience. Choose the best answer.

1. Sentence: "Hey Mr. Johnson, can I skip the science test today? I'm really not in the mood."

Audience: A teacher.

A. Appropriate

☒ B. Not Appropriate

C. Appropriate, but informal

2. Sentence: "DNA is like tiny instructions inside every living thing that tell your body how to work."

Audience: 4th-grade science class.

☒ A. Appropriate

B. Not Appropriate – too formal

C. Not Appropriate – too detailed

3. Sentence: "Grandma, you're the GOAT for making these delicious cookies!"

Audience: Your elderly grandmother.

A. Appropriate

☒ B. Not Appropriate – slang might confuse her

C. Appropriate if your grandma is used to modern slang