Avoid Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using someone else's work without credit. To avoid it, use quotation marks for direct quotes and add a citation.

Example:

The Great Wall of China is over 13,000 miles long and was built to protect against invasions (Wonders of the World, Michael Brown, 2021).

Read the following sentences, then paraphrase or summarize the information using your own words.

1. Original Sentence: Recycling helps reduce waste in landfills, conserve natural resources, and protect the environment.

Source: Caring for Our Planet by Emily Johnson, 2020.

Paraphrase: _____

2. Original Sentence: Abraham Lincoln is remembered as one of America's greatest presidents because he led the country during the Civil War and helped end slavery.

Source: American Leaders by Thomas Greene, 2015.

Paraphrase: _____

3. Original Sentence: A solar eclipse happens when the moon passes between the Earth and the Sun, blocking the Sun's light for a short time.
