Contractions in Formal and Informal Contexts

Contractions are shortened forms of words made by combining two words and using an apostrophe (e.g., "don't" for "do not" or "it's" for "it is").

1. Which of the following sentences uses a contraction correctly in an informal context.

- a. I cannot believe it!
- b. I can't believe it!
- c. I will not do that.
- d. She is going to the store.

2. Identify the sentence that is appropriate for formal writing.

- a. He doesn't agree with the results.
- b. She isn't sure about the answer.
- c. The experiment does not support the hypothesis.
- d. It's not working as expected.

3. Rewrite the sentence to make it informal.

She is not coming to the party.

4. Rewrite the sentence to make it informal.

I'll finish my homework after dinner.
