

Name _____

Date _____

Easily Confused Words

These words are frequently mixed up due to similar spelling/pronunciation but carry distinct grammatical roles and meanings in context.

Example:

their (possession) vs. there (location)

Underline the correct word in each sentence.

1. The artist created an (illusion / allusion) of movement in the painting.
2. The explorer kept a detailed (diary / dairy) of his journey across the mountains.
3. The scientist explained the (principal / principle) behind the experiment.
4. The castle is located on the (site / sight) where the famous battle took place.
5. She was (quite / quiet) fascinated by the beautiful sculpture.
6. The teacher gave me a (compliment / complement) about my history project.
7. We learned about the (desert / dessert) animals in science class.
8. The king's crown is a powerful (symbol / cymbal) of his authority.
9. The museum had to (adapt / adopt) new security measures to protect the artifacts.
10. The astronaut described the Earth's (ascent / assent) from the space station.

Name _____

Date _____

Easily Confused Words - Answer Key

These words are frequently mixed up due to similar spelling/pronunciation but carry distinct grammatical roles and meanings in context.

Example:

their (possession) vs. there (location)

Underline the correct word in each sentence.

1. The artist created an (illusion / allusion) of movement in the painting.
2. The explorer kept a detailed (diary / dairy) of his journey across the mountains.
3. The scientist explained the (principal / principle) behind the experiment.
4. The castle is located on the (site / sight) where the famous battle took place.
5. She was (quite / quiet) fascinated by the beautiful sculpture.
6. The teacher gave me a (compliment / complement) about my history project.
7. We learned about the (desert / dessert) animals in science class.
8. The king's crown is a powerful (symbol / cymbal) of his authority.
9. The museum had to (adapt / adopt) new security measures to protect the artifacts.
10. The astronaut described the Earth's (ascent / assent) from the space station.