

Name _____

Date _____

Indefinite Adjectives

Indefinite adjectives are words that describe nouns without specifying exact quantities. They tell about general amounts or refer to non-specific things.

Example:

Several students completed their projects early.

Complete each sentence with the most appropriate indefinite adjective from the box:

Word Box: various, numerous, few, either, several, all

1. _____ scientists disagreed with the controversial hypothesis.
2. The museum displayed _____ ancient civilizations throughout the exhibition.
3. _____ of the theories could explain the mysterious phenomenon.
4. _____ researchers have successfully replicated the experiment.
5. _____ wilderness explorers bring sufficient supplies for their expeditions.
6. _____ environmental factors contributed to the ecosystem's collapse.

Name _____

Date _____

Indefinite Adjectives – Answer Key

Indefinite adjectives are words that describe nouns without specifying exact quantities. They tell about general amounts or refer to non-specific things.

Example:

Several students completed their projects early.

Complete each sentence with the most appropriate indefinite adjective from the box:

Word Box: various, numerous, few, either, several, all

1. Several scientists disagreed with the controversial hypothesis.
2. The museum displayed various ancient civilizations throughout the exhibition.
3. Either of the theories could explain the mysterious phenomenon.
4. Few researchers have successfully replicated the experiment.
5. All wilderness explorers bring sufficient supplies for their expeditions.
6. Numerous environmental factors contributed to the ecosystem's collapse.