

Name _____

Date _____

Prepositional Phrases for Precision and Style

A prepositional phrase starts with a preposition (like: in, on, at, behind) and ends with a noun or pronoun. It tells us more about where, when, or how something happens.

Examples:

Preposition + Noun/Phrase = (at + school) = at school

Circle P (Precision) or S (Style) for each underlined phrase.

- | | |
|--|-------|
| 1. Flowers bloom in spring . | P / S |
| 2. The dog ran through the muddy puddles. | P / S |
| 3. She read at the library . | P / S |
| 4. Stars twinkle on a clear night . | P / S |
| 5. He arrived at 3:00 PM . | P / S |
| 6. The wind howled like a wolf . | P / S |
| 7. The train departs at 8:15 AM . | P / S |
| 8. Rain fell like silver threads from the sky . | P / S |
| 9. Lunch begins after the third bell . | P / S |
| 10. Birds built nests among the blossoming branches . | P / S |

Name _____

Date _____

Prepositional Phrases for Precision and Style – Answer Key

A prepositional phrase starts with a preposition (like: in, on, at, behind) and ends with a noun or pronoun. It tells us more about where, when, or how something happens.

Examples:

Preposition + Noun/Phrase = (at + school) = at school

Circle P (Precision) or S (Style) for each underlined phrase.

1. Flowers bloom in spring. (P) / S
2. The dog ran through the muddy puddles. P / (S)
3. She read at the library. (P) / S
4. Stars twinkle on a clear night. P / (S)
5. He arrived at 3:00 PM. (P) / S
6. The wind howled like a wolf. P / (S)
7. The train departs at 8:15 AM. (P) / S
8. Rain fell like silver threads from the sky. P / (S)
9. Lunch begins after the third bell. (P) / S
10. Birds built nests among the blossoming branches. P / (S)