

Name _____

Date _____

Impact of Sentences on Tone and Mood

Sentence structure choices significantly influence the tone and mood of your writing. Different sentence types can evoke specific emotional responses in readers and enhance how your message is received and interpreted.

Examples:

"Consider the consequences before acting." (thoughtful advice)

Circle the best description of each sentence's purpose.

2. "Tornadoes form when warm and cool air collide."

A. Express emotion

B. Provide information

C. Give command

D. Ask question

2. "Have you completed your science project?"

A. Share fact

B. Engage the reader

C. Show excitement

D. Warn about danger

2. "Tornadoes form when warm and cool air collide."

A. Explain a process

B. Request action

C. Convey strong feeling

D. Describe quietly

Name _____

Date _____

Impact of Sentences on Tone and Mood – Answer Key

Sentence structure choices significantly influence the tone and mood of your writing. Different sentence types can evoke specific emotional responses in readers and enhance how your message is received and interpreted.

Examples:

"Consider the consequences before acting." (thoughtful advice)

Circle the best description of each sentence's purpose.

2. "Tornadoes form when warm and cool air collide."

A. Express emotion

B. Provide information

C. Give command

D. Ask question

2. "Have you completed your science project?"

A. Share fact

B. Engage the reader

C. Show excitement

D. Warn about danger

2. "Tornadoes form when warm and cool air collide."

A. Explain a process

B. Request action

C. Convey strong feeling

D. Describe quietly