Verb Tenses Consistence and Sentence Variety

Verb tense consistency is essential for clear communication in Standard English. When writing, maintain the same tense unless there's a logical reason to shift.

Examples:

"She walks to the store, buys groceries, and returns home."

Circle the correct verb form to maintain tense consistency.

1. Yesterday, Mia (paints/painted) a picture and (frames/framed) it for her mom.
2. Last summer, we (visit/visited) Grandma and (swim/swam) in her pool.
3. If it (rains/will rain) tomorrow, the game (is/will be) canceled.

Combine using and, but, because, or so (only one correct answer per pair).

1. Emma studied hard. She passed the science test.

2. Penguins can't fly. They swim expertly.
