

Name _____

Date _____

Plan with Paragraph Outlines

Write about your topic:

What is justice? What examples can you find from the past? Narrow your topic to one that you can cover well in a short report.

Before making your outline, brainstorm answers to the following questions.

1. What does justice mean to you in simple terms?

2. Can you think of one historical example of justice being served or justice lacking?

3. Which specific aspect of justice would you like to focus on (e.g., fairness, human rights, laws)?

4. Try to write the topic sentence.

5. Give one supporting idea.

Name _____

Date _____

Plan with Paragraph Outlines – Answer Key

Write about your topic:

What is justice? What examples can you find from the past? Narrow your topic to one that you can cover well in a short report.

Before making your outline, brainstorm answers to the following questions.

1. What does justice mean to you in simple terms?

Justice means fairness and doing what is right.

2. Can you think of one historical example of justice being served or justice lacking?

A historical example of justice is the Civil Rights Movement in the United States.

3. Which specific aspect of justice would you like to focus on (e.g., fairness, human rights, laws)?

I want to focus on how laws are used to ensure fairness, like in the Civil Rights Act.

4. Try to write the topic sentence.

Justice means treating everyone fairly and equally under the law.

5. Give one supporting idea.

Examples like the Civil Rights Movement show the importance of fighting for fairness.