

Name _____

Date _____

Paragraph Structure and Logic Optimization

Optimizing paragraph structure and logic helps students create clear, organized, and effective writing by ensuring ideas are presented in a logical order with well-connected sentences for better readability and engagement.

Below are sentences from a draft. Read carefully and choose the best revision for each.

1. "Justice includes laws for fairness so everyone is treated equally." Which revision best strengthens the sentence?
 - A. Justice includes laws that treat people differently but equally.
 - B. Justice includes laws that ensure people of all backgrounds are treated fairly under the law.
 - C. Justice includes laws because laws are good for people to follow.
 - D. Justice includes equality for everyone and children at school.
2. "For example, schools allowing children to learn provide opportunities for success." Which revision provides better detail and clarity?
 - A. For example, schools offer education because children need to succeed in fairness.
 - B. For example, justice is seen when schools let children learn equally.
 - C. For example, schools that treat all children equally provide opportunities for success, allowing them to reach their full potential.
 - D. Schools can teach children justice when providing fairness and success.

Name _____

Date _____

Paragraph Structure and Logic Optimization – Answer Key

Optimizing paragraph structure and logic helps students create clear, organized, and effective writing by ensuring ideas are presented in a logical order with well-connected sentences for better readability and engagement.

Below are sentences from a draft. Read carefully and choose the best revision for each.

1. "Justice includes laws for fairness so everyone is treated equally." Which revision best strengthens the sentence?
 - A. Justice includes laws that treat people differently but equally.
 - ☒ B. Justice includes laws that ensure people of all backgrounds are treated fairly under the law.
 - C. Justice includes laws because laws are good for people to follow.
 - D. Justice includes equality for everyone and children at school.
2. "For example, schools allowing children to learn provide opportunities for success." Which revision provides better detail and clarity?
 - A. For example, schools offer education because children need to succeed in fairness.
 - B. For example, justice is seen when schools let children learn equally.
 - ☒ C. For example, schools that treat all children equally provide opportunities for success, allowing them to reach their full potential.
 - D. Schools can teach children justice when providing fairness and success.