Review the draft to evaluate its formal tone and informative purpose, then revise the following sentence to improve the tone.

Exercise is essential for kids because it improves their physical health, boosts their mood, and teaches them teamwork and life skills. Regular physical activity, such as running or biking, helps kids build strong muscles, stay fit, and prevent health issues like obesity. Additionally, exercise is good for mental health—it reduces stress and improves focus, helping kids perform better in school. Group sports also teach kids how to work together, solve problems, and stay disciplined. Exercise is not just healthy; it's a key to helping kids grow into capable and confident individuals.

1. "Exercise teaches kids how to be awesome team players and chill out with friends."

Revised Sentence:

2. "When kids play soccer, it's great because they have fun and learn stuff."
