Conventions: Run-On Sentences and Misused Words

Run-on sentences occur when two or more independent clauses are joined without proper punctuation or connecting words. For example, "I like pizza it is my favorite food" is a run-on because it lacks a conjunction or punctuation to separate the two ideas. Misused words like "their" instead of "there" or "your" instead of "you're" can make sentences confusing or grammatically incorrect. These errors can distract readers and weaken the impact of the writing. Correcting run-on sentences and misused words ensures that writing is grammatically correct, clear, and professional

Read the draft below about the importance of teamwork and correct any run-on sentences, misused words, or spelling mistakes.

"Teamwork is essential because it helps people achieve great results. For example when individuals work together, there ideas and skills combine to create solutions to complex problems. Many people think their efforts don't matter however every small contribution counts. In sports teamwork allows players to coordinate their moves and achieve victory. At work it helps employees meet deadlines and deliver projects successfully. Without teamwork people would struggle to reach their goals."
