

Name _____

Date _____

Action and Linking Verbs

An action verb tells what someone or something does.

A linking verb gives more details about the subject. "Be" verbs like "is," "are," and "was" are linking verbs.

Examples:

They ran together. The dinner is so delicious.
A L

Underline the verb. Then, circle A(action verb) or L(linking verb) beside.

- | | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|---|
| 1. Sam runs fast in the park. | A | L |
| 2. Lily eats pizza at the table. | A | L |
| 3. The cat sleeps under the tree. | A | L |
| 4. I am happy with my toy. | A | L |
| 5. He is playing in the yard. | A | L |
| 6. She walks to school everyday. | A | L |
| 7. They jump high on the trampoline. | A | L |
| 8. We are friends from school. | A | L |

Name _____

Date _____

Action and Linking Verbs – Answer Key

An action verb tells what someone or something does.

A linking verb gives more details about the subject. "Be" verbs like "is," "are," and "was" are linking verbs.

Examples:

They ran together. The dinner is so delicious.
A L

Underline the verb. Then, circle A(action verb) or L(linking verb) beside.

1. Sam runs fast in the park. A L
2. Lily eats pizza at the table. A L
3. The cat sleeps under the tree. A L
4. I am happy with my toy. A L
5. He is my brother John. A L
6. She walks to school everyday. A L
7. They jump high on the trampoline. A L
8. We are friends from school. A L