

Name _____

Date _____

Basic Capitalization Rules

To capitalize means to make the first letter big. We need to capitalize the beginning letters when we:

- Make a sentence:

The first letter in a sentence should be capitalized.

Example: The dog is happy.

- Meet one's name and special places:

Names of people and places also get a big letter.

Example: Sarah went to New York.

Color the box to choose the correct form of the beginning letter in the highlighted words.

1. the rabbit hops in the garden.

R r

2. Today, i swim in the pool happily.

I i

3. We play games at the park.

P p

4. The pictures are painted by mr. Bob.

M m

5. My uncle gavin feeds the fish.

G g

6. Emily plants flowers by the fence.

F f

7. I live in Paris. where are you from?

W w

8. We had dinner in texas last night.

T t

Name _____

Date _____

Basic Capitalization Rules – Answer Key

To capitalize means to make the first letter big. We need to capitalize the beginning letters when we:

- Make a sentence:

The first letter in a sentence should be capitalized.

Example: The dog is happy.

- Meet one's name and special places:

Names of people and places also get a big letter.

Example: Sarah went to New York.

Color the box to choose the correct form of the beginning letter in the highlighted words.

1. the rabbit hops in the garden.

R r

2. Today, i swim in the pool happily.

I i

3. We play games at the park.

P p

4. The pictures are painted by mr. Bob.

M m

5. My uncle gavin feeds the fish.

G g

6. Emily plants flowers by the fence.

F f

7. I live in Paris. where are you from?

W w

8. We had dinner in texas last night.

T t