

Name _____

Date _____

Sentence Development

When we develop a sentence, no matter during speaking, or writing, we need to put the words in the right order and express a complete thought.

Unscramble the words and make new sentences.

Mom                  room                  cleans                  the

---

---

---

Kate                  kite                  a                  flies

---

---

---

tired                  boy                  seems                  the

---

---

---

are                  flowers                  the                  colorful

---

---

---

the                  is                  big                  house

---

---

---

Name _____

Date _____

Sentence Development - Answer Key

When we develop a sentence, no matter during speaking, or writing, we need to put the words in the right order and express a complete thought.

Unscramble the words and make new sentences.

Mom                  room                  cleans                  the

Mom cleans the room.

Kate                  kite                  a                  flies

Kate flies a kite.

tired                  boy                  seems                  The

The boy seems tired.

are                  flowers                  The                  colorful

The flowers are colorful.

The                  is                  big                  house

The house is big.