Draft: Use a Map – Answer Key

After gather information in thinking map, it's time to write a first draft. In a draft, you put your ideas into sentences. Your first draft is your first try at writing about your topic.

Ethan drew a map to remember the way from the classroom to the library. Draft how to find the library.

How can we get from our classroom to the library? First, leave the classroom and turn right. Walk straight down the hall and pass the office. Next, stop at the bulletin board and turn left. Walk straight ahead. You'll find the library!
