

Name _____

Date _____

Draw Simple Conclusions

Making inferences and drawing conclusions means using clues from the text plus your own knowledge to figure out information that the author doesn't directly tell you.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

Maya heard a soft sound coming from the bushes near her house. She looked closer and saw a small, muddy puppy with no collar. The puppy was shivering and looked very thin. Maya's eyes filled with tears as she gently picked up the scared little animal. She carried the puppy inside and wrapped it in a warm blanket. Then she gave it some food and water. The puppy's tail started wagging for the first time.

Based on the story, how does Maya feel about the puppy?

- A. She is scared of the puppy
- B. She feels sorry for the puppy and wants to help
- C. She doesn't care about the puppy
- D. She is angry at the puppy

Name _____

Date _____

Draw Simple Conclusions – Answer Key

Making inferences and drawing conclusions means using clues from the text plus your own knowledge to figure out information that the author doesn't directly tell you.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

Maya heard a soft sound coming from the bushes near her house. She looked closer and saw a small, muddy puppy with no collar. The puppy was shivering and looked very thin. Maya's eyes filled with tears as she gently picked up the scared little animal. She carried the puppy inside and wrapped it in a warm blanket. Then she gave it some food and water. The puppy's tail started wagging for the first time.

Based on the story, how does Maya feel about the puppy?

- A. She is scared of the puppy
- B. She feels sorry for the puppy and wants to help
- C. She doesn't care about the puppy
- D. She is angry at the puppy