Authors Craft is how writers use words, ideas, and techniques to make their stories interesting. It helps readers understand the story better and enjoy the way it is written.

Read the text. Choose the correct answer.

"Christmas won't be Christmas without any presents," grumbled Jo, sitting near the fire.

"It's so hard to be poor," sighed Meg, looking down at her worn dress.

"But we still have Father and Mother, and each other," said Beth with a gentle smile.

The sisters stopped complaining and began to smile.

They knew Beth was right.

From Little Women by Louisa May Alcott
