

Name _____

Date _____

Consonant -le Syllable

A consonant -le syllable is a final syllable that contains a consonant followed by "le". The "e" is silent, and the consonant blends with the "l" sound. This syllable type is always found at the END of words.

Q1 Which word ends with a consonant -le syllable?

- | | |
|-----------------|------------------|
| A. name | B. table |
| C. music | D. basket |

Q2 Which word has a consonant -le ending?

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| A. simple | B. number |
| C. tiger | D. panda |

Q3 Which word contains a consonant -le syllable?

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| A. garden | B. purple |
| C. pencil | D. window |

Q4 How should "apple" be divided?

- | | |
|------------------|------------------|
| A. app-le | B. ap-ple |
| C. a-pple | D. appl-e |

Name _____

Date _____

Consonant -le Syllable – Answer Key

A consonant -le syllable is a final syllable that contains a consonant followed by "le". The "e" is silent, and the consonant blends with the "l" sound. This syllable type is always found at the END of words.

Q1 Which word ends with a consonant -le syllable?

A. name

B. table

C. music

D. basket

Q2 Which word has a consonant -le ending?

A. simple

B. number

C. tiger

D. panda

Q3 Which word contains a consonant -le syllable?

A. garden

B. purple

C. pencil

D. window

Q4 How should "apple" be divided?

A. app-le

B. ap-ple

C. a-pple

D. appl-e