Double Final Consonants

Double final consonants are words that end with two of the same consonants, such as ll, ss, ff, or zz. Even though the consonants are doubled in spelling, they are pronounced as a single sound.

Example:

The word dress ends with "ss", but pronounced as /dres/ (only one "s" sound).

Underline the double letters at the end of each word.

- |         |          |
|---------|----------|
| 1. bell | 5. dress |
| 2. mess | 6. hill  |
| 3. puff | 7. buzz  |
| 4. jazz | 8. cliff |

Sort these words into the correct columns based on their double final consonants.

Words: ball, fizz, kiss, doll, pass, cliff, spell, buzz

Words end with -ll	Words end with -ss	Words end with -ff	Words end with -zz
