

Name _____

Date _____

Use Synonyms to Replace Words in Sentences

Synonyms are words that mean almost the same thing. Using synonyms can make writing more interesting and help avoid repeating the same word too many times.

Example:

The dog is big. → The dog is large.

Fill in the blanks by replacing the underlined word with a synonym.

1. The dog is very big. → The dog is very _____.

2. The movie was funny. → The movie was _____.

3. The soup is hot. → The soup is _____.

4. The baby is small. → The baby is _____.

5. He ran very fast. → He ran very _____.

6. The weather is cold. → The weather is _____.

Name _____

Date _____

Use Synonyms to Replace Words in Sentences – Answer Key

Synonyms are words that mean almost the same thing. Using synonyms can make writing more interesting and help avoid repeating the same word too many times.

Example:

The dog is big. → The dog is large.

Fill in the blanks by replacing the underlined word with a synonym.

1. The dog is very big. → The dog is very large.

2. The movie was funny. → The movie was joyful.

3. The soup is hot. → The soup is warm.

4. The baby is small. → The baby is tiny.

5. He ran very fast. → He ran very quick.

6. The weather is cold. → The weather is chilly.