

Name _____

Date _____

Ask Related Questions

Asking questions while reading helps to better understand the story or text. Questions can be about what is happening, why it is happening, or what might happen next. Good questions often start with words like who, what, when, where, why, or how.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

One sunny afternoon, Mia and her brother Jack went to the park. Mia brought her kite, and the two of them took turns flying it. The kite danced and twirled in the wind, floating higher. Suddenly, a strong gust of wind pulled the kite out of Mia's hands! The kite flew into a tall tree and got stuck in the branches. Mia and Jack tried to reach it, but it was too high. Just then, a kind man walking his dog saw them. He used a long stick to help get the kite down. Mia and Jack thanked the man and flew the kite again.

1. Who helped Mia and Jack get the kite down from tree?

- A. Their mom.
- B. A kind man walking his dog.
- C. A park ranger.

2. What caused the kite to get stuck in the tree?

- A. Mia let go of the kite on purpose.
- B. Jack climbed the tree and dropped the kite.
- C. A strong gust of wind pulled the kite away.

3. Why did Mia and Jack thank the man?

- A. He helped them fly the kite higher.
- B. He helped them get the kite down using a stick.
- C. He gave them a new kite.

Name _____

Date _____

Ask Related Questions – Answer Key

Asking questions while reading helps to better understand the story or text. Questions can be about what is happening, why it is happening, or what might happen next. Good questions often start with words like who, what, when, where, why, or how.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

One sunny afternoon, Mia and her brother Jack went to the park. Mia brought her kite, and the two of them took turns flying it. The kite danced and twirled in the wind, floating higher. Suddenly, a strong gust of wind pulled the kite out of Mia's hands! The kite flew into a tall tree and got stuck in the branches. Mia and Jack tried to reach it, but it was too high. Just then, a kind man walking his dog saw them. He used a long stick to help get the kite down. Mia and Jack thanked the man and flew the kite again.

1. Who helped Mia and Jack get the kite down from tree?

- A. Their mom.
- ☒ B. A kind man walking his dog.
- C. A park ranger.

2. What caused the kite to get stuck in the tree?

- A. Mia let go of the kite on purpose.
- B. Jack climbed the tree and dropped the kite.
- ☒ C. A strong gust of wind pulled the kite away.

3. Why did Mia and Jack thank the man?

- A. He helped them fly the kite higher.
- ☒ B. He helped them get the kite down using a stick.
- C. He gave them a new kite.