*Lila and her brother Tom loved exploring. One day, they found a dark cave at the edge of the forest. The entrance was covered in vines, and a cool breeze came from inside. Lila felt curious but also a little nervous. As they walked into the cave, their footsteps echoed. They saw strange drawings on the walls, like animals and stars. "What do you think these drawings mean?" Lila asked. Tom shined his flashlight on one drawing that looked like a map. "Maybe it's showing us a secret path," Tom said.
