

Name _____

Date _____

Compare and Contrast Characters

Compare and contrast characters means finding how characters in a story are alike and how they are different. To compare, look for things they have in common. To contrast, look for things that are not the same.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

Emma and Liam were siblings who loved Saturdays for different reasons. Emma enjoyed Saturdays because she could spend the whole day outside. She loved playing soccer with her friends and riding her bike around the park. She felt happy and free when she was outdoors. Liam, however, liked to stay indoors on Saturdays. He enjoyed building puzzles and reading adventure books. He thought Saturdays were the best because they gave him time to imagine and relax in his cozy room. Even though Emma and Liam liked to spend their Saturdays differently, they always had lunch together. They both loved eating pizza and telling each other about their day.

1. How are Emma and Liam different?

- A. Emma enjoy playing outside, Liam prefers indoors.
- B. Emma likes puzzles, but Liam doesn't.
- C. Liam loves soccer, but Emma doesn't.

2. What is one way Emma and Liam are alike?

- A. They both enjoy reading books.
- B. They both love spending Saturdays outside.
- C. They both enjoy eating pizza and talking during lunch.

Name _____

Date _____

Compare and Contrast Characters – Answer Key

Compare and contrast characters means finding how characters in a story are alike and how they are different. To compare, look for things they have in common. To contrast, look for things that are not the same.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

Emma and Liam were siblings who loved Saturdays for different reasons. Emma enjoyed Saturdays because she could spend the whole day outside. She loved playing soccer with her friends and riding her bike around the park. She felt happy and free when she was outdoors. Liam, however, liked to stay indoors on Saturdays. He enjoyed building puzzles and reading adventure books. He thought Saturdays were the best because they gave him time to imagine and relax in his cozy room. Even though Emma and Liam liked to spend their Saturdays differently, they always had lunch together. They both loved eating pizza and telling each other about their day.

1. How are Emma and Liam different?

- A. Emma enjoy playing outside, Liam prefers indoors.
- B. Emma likes puzzles, but Liam doesn't.
- C. Liam loves soccer, but Emma doesn't.

2. What is one way Emma and Liam are alike?

- A. They both enjoy reading books.
- B. They both love spending Saturdays outside.
- C. They both enjoy eating pizza and talking during lunch.