

Name _____

Date _____

Compare and Contrast Themes and Key Details

Compare and contrast characters means finding how characters in a story are alike and how they are different. To compare, look for things they have in common. To contrast, look for things that are not the same.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

PASSAGE 1

In a quiet forest, a squirrel named Sam loved collecting acorns. One day, Sam saw a rabbit struggling to carry a heavy basket of carrots. Sam decided to help the rabbit and carried the basket together with him. The rabbit smiled and thanked Sam. Later, Sam felt happy knowing he had made the rabbit's day easier.

PASSAGE 2

On a sunny morning, two birds, Lily and Max, found a big bag of seeds. At first, they fought over the seeds, each trying to keep all of them. But then Lily said, "If we share, we'll both have enough to eat." Max agreed, and they divided the seeds. Both birds were full and happy, knowing they had solved their problem by working together.

1. How are the themes of the two stories alike?

- A. Both stories teach about kindness and helping others.
- B. Both stories focus on collecting food.
- C. Both stories are about solving problems.

2. Which detail supports the theme of the first story?

- A. The rabbit decided to collect more carrots later.
- B. Lily and Max shared the seeds they found.
- C. Sam carried the basket of carrots to help the rabbit.

Name _____

Date _____

Compare and Contrast Themes and Key Details - Answer Key

Compare and contrast characters means finding how characters in a story are alike and how they are different. To compare, look for things they have in common. To contrast, look for things that are not the same.

Read the passage and choose the correct answer.

PASSAGE 1

In a quiet forest, a squirrel named Sam loved collecting acorns. One day, Sam saw a rabbit struggling to carry a heavy basket of carrots. Sam decided to help the rabbit and carried the basket together with him. The rabbit smiled and thanked Sam. Later, Sam felt happy knowing he had made the rabbit's day easier.

PASSAGE 2

On a sunny morning, two birds, Lily and Max, found a big bag of seeds. At first, they fought over the seeds, each trying to keep all of them. But then Lily said, "If we share, we'll both have enough to eat." Max agreed, and they divided the seeds. Both birds were full and happy, knowing they had solved their problem by working together.

1. How are the themes of the two stories alike?

- A. Both stories teach about kindness and helping others.
- B. Both stories focus on collecting food.
- C. Both stories are about solving problems.

2. Which detail supports the theme of the first story?

- A. The rabbit decided to collect more carrots later.
- B. Lily and Max shared the seeds they found.
- C. Sam carried the basket of carrots to help the rabbit.