

Name _____

Date _____

Distinguish Fact and Opinion

A fact is something true that can be proven. An opinion is what someone thinks or feels, but it cannot be proven true.

Example:

Fact: The sun is a star.

Opinion: The sun is the most beautiful thing in the sky.

Determine whether the sentence is a fact(F) or an opinion(O).

1. The sun rises in the east.

_____

2. Blue is the prettiest color.

_____

3. A year has 12 months.

_____

4. Apples taste better than oranges.

_____

5. Snow is cold.

_____

6. My dog is the smartest pet ever.

_____

7. Birds can fly.

_____

8. Fridays are the best day of the week.

_____

Name _____

Date _____

Distinguish Fact and Opinion – Answer Key

A fact is something true that can be proven. An opinion is what someone thinks or feels, but it cannot be proven true.

Example:

Fact: The sun is a star.

Opinion: The sun is the most beautiful thing in the sky.

Determine whether the sentence is a fact(F) or an opinion(O).

1. The sun rises in the east.

          
F

2. Blue is the prettiest color.

          
O

3. A year has 12 months.

          
F

4. Apples taste better than oranges.

          
O

5. Snow is cold.

          
F

6. My dog is the smartest pet ever.

          
O

7. Birds can fly.

          
F

8. Fridays are the best day of the week.

          
O