

Name _____

Date _____

Understand Figurative Language

Figurative language uses words in creative ways to make writing more interesting. It does not always mean exactly what it says. Examples of figurative language include similes and metaphors.

Choose the best explanation for the figurative language.

1. "The train was a snake on the tracks."

- A. The train was moving like a long snake.
- B. The train was full of snakes.
- C. The train was loud and scary.

2. "His stomach growled like a hungry bear."

- A. He had a bear in his stomach.
- B. He was full.
- C. His stomach made a loud noise.

3. "The flowers danced in the wind."

- A. The flowers fell from the stems.
- B. The flowers were moving gently in the wind.
- C. The flowers were dancing like people.

4. "Her words were music to my ears."

- A. Her words were pleasant to hear.
- B. She was singing.
- C. Her words were loud.

5. "The mountain was a giant standing over the valley."

- A. The mountain was alive.
- B. The mountain was very tall.
- C. The mountain had a giant on it.

Name _____

Date _____

Understand Figurative Language – Answer Key

Figurative language uses words in creative ways to make writing more interesting. It does not always mean exactly what it says. Examples of figurative language include similes and metaphors.

Choose the best explanation for the figurative language.

1. "The train was a snake on the tracks."

☒ A. The train was moving like a long snake.

B. The train was full of snakes.

C. The train was loud and scary.

2. "His stomach growled like a hungry bear."

A. He had a bear in his stomach.

B. He was full.

☒ C. His stomach made a loud noise.

3. "The flowers danced in the wind."

A. The flowers fell from the stems.

☒ B. The flowers were moving gently in the wind.

C. The flowers were dancing like people.

4. "Her words were music to my ears."

☒ A. Her words were pleasant to hear.

B. She was singing.

C. Her words were loud.

5. "The mountain was a giant standing over the valley."

A. The mountain was alive.

☒ B. The mountain was very tall.

C. The mountain had a giant on it.