

Name _____

Date _____

Choose a Good Ideas

Ideas are the thoughts, topics, and messages that writers want to share with their readers. A writer should always start with a clear topic. A topic that is clear is easier to write about.

Example: I plan to write a paragraph about a trip I'm taking to Texas. Which topic is clear, a trip or going to Texas? "Going to Texas" is better because it gives a clearer idea of where you are going.

Read the stories. Then write the topic of each one. The answer varies.

My name is Jenny. I am a bunny. I like to chase dogs. I enjoyed running around the house.

Topic: _____

My name is Star. I am a horse. Claire and I ride in horse shows. We win ribbons finally.

Topic: _____

My name is Ding-ding. I am Mason's pet cat. I am smart and cute. I meet him at the door. Then I do a wink!

Topic: _____

Name _____

Date _____

Choose a Good Ideas – Answer Key

Ideas are the thoughts, topics, and messages that writers want to share with their readers. A writer should always start with a clear topic. A topic that is clear is easier to write about.

Example: I plan to write a paragraph about a trip I'm taking to Texas. Which topic is clear, a trip or going to Texas? "Going to Texas" is better because it gives a clearer idea of where you are going.

Read the stories. Then write the topic of each one. The answer varies.

My name is Jenny. I am a bunny. I like to chase dogs. I enjoyed running around the house.

Topic: _____ Jenny, a naughty bunny _____

My name is Star. I am a horse. Claire and I ride in horse shows. We win ribbons finally.

Topic: _____ Star is a winner horse. _____

My name is Ding-ding. I am Mason's pet cat. I am smart and cute. I meet him at the door. Then I do a wink!

Topic: _____ Ding-ding, a smart cat. _____