

Name _____

Date _____

Create a Mood

Tone is the feeling or attitude in a writer's words. It helps create the mood, which is how the writing makes the reader feel. The mood can be happy, sad, exciting, scary, or anything else.

Read each paragraph and describe the mood they created.

cheerful	thrilling
loving	frightening

1. The sun was shining, and kids laughed as they played tag. A big kite flew high in the blue sky.

Mood: _____

2. Grandma gave me a warm hug. "I baked your favorite cookies," she said with a smile.

Mood: _____

3. The roller coaster raced down the track. The wind roared, and I screamed with excitement!

Mood: _____

4. The storm shook the windows. Lightning flashed, and thunder boomed loudly.

Mood: _____

Name _____

Date _____

Create a Mood – Answer Key

Tone is the feeling or attitude in a writer's words. It helps create the mood, which is how the writing makes the reader feel. The mood can be happy, sad, exciting, scary, or anything else.

Read each paragraph and describe the mood they created.

cheerful	thrilling
loving	frightening

1. The sun was shining, and kids laughed as they played tag. A big kite flew high in the blue sky.

Mood: cheerful

2. Grandma gave me a warm hug. "I baked your favorite cookies," she said with a smile.

Mood: loving

3. The roller coaster raced down the track. The wind roared, and I screamed with excitement!

Mood: thrilling

4. The storm shook the windows. Lightning flashed, and thunder boomed loudly.

Mood: frightening