

Name _____

Date _____

Identify Fragment and Run ons

A fragment is an incomplete sentence. It is missing a subject, a predicate, or both, so it does not express a full idea. A run-on is a sentence that is too long because it connects multiple ideas without proper punctuation or conjunctions.

Decide if it is a fragment, run-on, or a complete sentence.

1. Go to the park.

- A. Fragment.
- B. Run-on.
- C. Complete sentence.

2. The cat slept all day. She woke up to eat dinner and then went back to sleep.

- A. Fragment.
- B. Run-on.
- C. Complete sentence.

3. Ran across the yard.

- A. Fragment.
- B. Run-on.
- C. Complete sentence.

4. My dad likes to cook he makes spaghetti every Friday it tastes amazing.

- A. Fragment.
- B. Run-on.
- C. Complete sentence.

Name _____

Date _____

Identify Fragment and Run ons – Answer Key

A fragment is an incomplete sentence. It is missing a subject, a predicate, or both, so it does not express a full idea. A run-on is a sentence that is too long because it connects multiple ideas without proper punctuation or conjunctions.

Read each sentence and decide if it is a fragment, run-on, or a complete sentence.

1. Go to the park.

A. Fragment.

B. Run-on.

C. Complete sentence.

2. The cat slept all day. She woke up to eat dinner and then went back to sleep.

A. Fragment.

B. Run-on.

C. Complete sentence.

3. Ran across the yard.

A. Fragment.

B. Run-on.

C. Complete sentence.

4. My dad likes to cook he makes spaghetti every Friday it tastes amazing.

A. Fragment.

B. Run-on.

C. Complete sentence.