

Name _____

Date _____

Concrete and Abstract Nouns

A concrete noun names something you can see, hear, touch, taste, or smell. It is something real and physical.

An abstract noun names a feeling, idea, or quality. It is something you cannot touch or see.

Example:

A concrete noun: apple, car, dog, sky.

An abstract noun: love, happiness, bravery, freedom.

Match each noun to the correct noun type: concrete or abstract.

Table •

Happiness •

Freedom •

Flower •

• Abstract noun

Friendship •

• Concrete noun

Pizza •

anger •

chair •

Name _____

Date _____

Concrete and Abstract Nouns – Answer Key

A concrete noun names something you can see, hear, touch, taste, or smell. It is something real and physical.

An abstract noun names a feeling, idea, or quality. It is something you cannot touch or see.

Example:

A concrete noun: apple, car, dog, sky.

An abstract noun: love, happiness, bravery, freedom.

Match each noun to the correct noun type: concrete or abstract.

