

Name _____

Date _____

Choose Proper Adjectives or Adverbs to Describe

Adjectives and adverbs make writing more interesting and detailed. Adjectives describe nouns (people, places, or things) by telling what kind, how many, or which one. Adverbs describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs by telling how, when, where, or to what extent something happens.

Rewrite each sentence by adding an appropriate adjective or adverb to make it more descriptive.

1. The cat jumped.

Answer: _____

2. They walked to school.

Answer: _____

3. The cake was good.

Answer: _____

4. The flowers are pretty.

Answer: _____

5. The bird sings.

Answer: _____

6. The car moved.

Answer: _____

Name _____

Date _____

Choose Proper Adjectives or Adverbs to Describe – Answer Key

Adjectives and adverbs make writing more interesting and detailed. Adjectives describe nouns (people, places, or things) by telling what kind, how many, or which one. Adverbs describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs by telling how, when, where, or to what extent something happens.

Rewrite each sentence by adding an appropriate adjective or adverb to make it more descriptive.

1. The cat jumped.

Answer: The fluffy cat jumped gracefully.

2. They walked to school.

Answer: They walked quickly to school.

3. The cake was good.

Answer: The chocolate cake was delicious.

4. The flowers are pretty.

Answer: The colorful flowers are very pretty.

5. The bird sings.

Answer: The little bird sings sweetly.

6. The car moved.

Answer: The bright sun rose quietly.