

Name _____

Date _____

Use Comparative to Express Superlative

Sometimes we use comparative forms (comparing two things) to express superlative meaning (the most/best of all). This happens when we compare one thing to "all others" or use phrases like "more than anyone else."

1. Which sentence uses comparative to express superlative meaning?

- A. Tom is tall
- B. Tom is taller than Jim
- C. Tom is taller than anyone else in his class
- D. Tom is the tallest boy

2. Which sentence means "Sarah is the smartest student"?

- A. Sarah is smart
- B. Sarah is smarter than Mary
- C. Sarah is smarter than anyone else in school
- D. Sarah and Mary are smart

Name

Date

Use Comparative to Express Superlative - Answer Key

Sometimes we use comparative forms (comparing two things) to express superlative meaning (the most/best of all). This happens when we compare one thing to "all others" or use phrases like "more than anyone else."

1. Which sentence uses comparative to express superlative meaning?

- A. Tom is tall
- B. Tom is taller than Jim
- C. Tom is taller than anyone else in his class
- D. Tom is the tallest boy

2. Which sentence means "Sarah is the smartest student"?

- A. Sarah is smart
- B. Sarah is smarter than Mary
- C. Sarah is smarter than anyone else in school
- D. Sarah and Mary are smart