

Name _____

Date _____

Classify Words

Word classification involves organizing words into categories based on their shared characteristics, functions, meanings, or grammatical properties. This skill helps improve vocabulary, comprehension, and language understanding.

1. Unhappy, unfair, unable, undo - These words all have:

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|
| A. the suffix -ly | C. the prefix un- |
| B. the suffix -ed | D. the prefix re- |

2. Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division

- | | |
|----------------|------------|
| A. science | C. English |
| B. mathematics | D. art |

3. Lion, tiger, elephant, giraffe

- | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| A. pets | C. farm animals |
| B. wild animals | D. sea animals |

Name _____

Date _____

Classify Words - Answer Key

Word classification involves organizing words into categories based on their shared characteristics, functions, meanings, or grammatical properties. This skill helps improve vocabulary, comprehension, and language understanding.

1. Unhappy, unfair, unable, undo - These words all have:

- A. the suffix -ly C. the prefix un-
B. the suffix -ed D. the prefix re-

2. Addition, subtraction, multiplication, division

- A. science C. English
B. mathematics D. art

3. Lion, tiger, elephant, giraffe

- A. pets C. farm animals
B. wild animals D. sea animals