

Name _____

Date _____

Multiple-Meaning Words and Context

Multiple-meaning words are words that are spelled the same but have two or more different meanings. The context clues in the sentence help us understand which meaning is being used.

1. "The dog started to bark at the mailman."
In this sentence, "bark" means:

- A. The outer covering of a tree
- B. The sound a dog makes
- C. A type of boat
- D. To run fast

2. "I need to change my clothes after playing outside."
What does "change" mean in this sentence?

- A. Coins and bills
- B. To move to a new place
- C. To put on different clothes
- D. To grow bigger

3. "Can you help me match these socks?"
What does "match" mean in this sentence?

- A. A sports game
- B. A small stick used to start a fire
- C. To find things that go together
- D. To walk quickly

Name _____

Date _____

Multiple-Meaning Words and Context - Answer Key

Multiple-meaning words are words that are spelled the same but have two or more different meanings. The context clues in the sentence help us understand which meaning is being used.

1. "The dog started to bark at the mailman."
In this sentence, "bark" means:

- A. The outer covering of a tree
- C. A type of boat
- B. The sound a dog makes
- D. To run fast

2. "I need to change my clothes after playing outside."
What does "change" mean in this sentence?

- A. Coins and bills
- C. To put on different clothes
- B. To move to a new place
- D. To grow bigger

3. "Can you help me match these socks?"
What does "match" mean in this sentence?

- A. A sports game
- C. To find things that go together
- B. A small stick used to start a fire
- D. To walk quickly